

The Cupola House Association

Mission Statement – 2019

Preserving the Past, Living in the Present, Ensuring the Future

The Cupola House Association is a non-profit organization existing to preserve the past, live in the present, and ensure the future. The 1758 Cupola House and its heritage gardens exist as a living house museum, thus enhancing an appreciation of our country's mid-Colonial era to our visitors and local community as well as future generations.
