

Cupola House Mission Statement, 2017

Preserving the Past, Living in the Present, Ensuring the Future

The Cupola House Association is a non-profit organization existing to preserve the past, live in the present and ensure the future. The 1758 Cupola House and its heritage gardens exist as a living house museum, thus enhancing an appreciation of our country's mid-Colonial era to our visitors and local community as well as future generations.
